Stichting VVO (Friends of Osho).

www.vrienden-van-osho.nl

Here you can find links to various centres and groups in the Netherlands, active in publicizing Osho's vision and work. The VVO also issues a monthly Newsletter (email). The program The Quest is also available through this website. With this program, keywords allow a search in more than 8000 questions asked to Osho. The location of the answer is then mentioned. For further search options, see the VVO website.

IISG (International Institute of Social History), Amsterdam.

Archive Neo-Sannyas Movement Netherlands.

www.iisg.nl

Search term: osho

In this archive there are more than 18 linear metres of documentation material about the history of the Dutch Buddhafield in particular. However, archive material can also be found from a few other countries.

Royal Library, The Hague

www.kb.nl

Just like the library of the Indian Parliament in New Delhi and the Library of Congress in Washington, the National Royal Library in The Hague has a virtually complete collection of Osho's books. These can be borrowed through local libraries.
